Why Preschools Choose Togetherhood

Quality

Instructors are masters of their craft and passionate about teaching young children. The people who have taught with us exemplify the caliber, from a Chopped champion chef to former Olympians.

Convenience

200+ course options, one partner, one invoice. We handle instructor matching, substitutes, materials, and curriculum, and give you a dedicated point of contact.

Trusted by all school types

From public and independent to charter, religious, and Montessori, preschools of every kind partner with us across New York City, Philadelphia, the DMV, and Greater Boston.

Community

Local instructors who know your families turn enrichment into something your community looks forward to. Many live in the neighborhoods they teach in, and some have even attended the very schools they now teach in.
